BOND BOOKS CLOSED

Total Amount Subscribed Is $176,250.

No Subscriptions for Over $2,500 Will Be Filled—Small Investors Favored.

The subscription books for city bonds closed last night, Sept. 1st, and a roundup of the situation may be of interest. The number of subscriptions received is 85, ranging from $50 to $65,000 and amounting in the aggregate to $176,250, nearly three times the amount to be issued.

At the next meeting of the city council, on Tuesday, Sept. 5, the status of the matter will be reported to that body, and after that the special bond committee, consisting of Mayor Bishop, Recorder Judah and Aldermen Buren and Walker, will meet and apportion the bonds to the subscribers.

The method of apportionment will closely follow the provisions of the bond ordinance, and will be as follows: All subscriptions of the smallest amount will be filled first, in the order in which they were received. Then those of the next higher amount, in their order, and so on until the $65,000 is exhausted.

Following this method, all subscriptions for amounts under $2,500 will be filled and all but the last man who subscribes to be A. T. Gilbert. Mr. Gilbert will have to content himself with $2,250, as to fill his whole amount would over run the limit by $250.

The first person to have his subscription filled will be Miller B. Hayden, the young son of Samuel, who wants $50 worth. Of four other $50 subscribers two are children, one a young lady stenographer and one a boy, Carl Gies, who invests his own earnings.

The popular figure seems to have been $500, and 21 persons subscribed for that amount.

All arrangements will be completed by the last of this month and on Oct. 2, City Treasurer John Moir will be at the city hall to receive subscribers' money and deliver to them the bonds. A reasonable time will be allowed for subscribers to appear and take their bonds, and interest will run from October first.

The committee wish it clearly understood that nothing but cash or certified checks, will be accepted in payment for these bonds.

FRENCH ATROCITIES

Soudan Natives the Victims of Inhuman Cruelty.

By Associated Press to the Journal.
Paris, Sept. 2.—The Matin publishes the details of the investigation into the conduct of Captain Voulet and Captain Chanoine, charged with barbarous cruelties to the natives in the French Soudan, which led to the sending of an expedition, under Lieutenant-Colonel Klobb, after them.

According to the paper, the two officers mentioned, who were in command of a column of troops, began their work of barbarity by beheading a native who had declared he did not know about what he was being questioned. A letter said Voulet captured 30 soldiers of whom he killed 20 of the women and children, shot a soldier for wasting ammunition, and burned a village of 10,000 inhabitants.

Chanoine, it is asserted, shot two of his men without trial for not pursuing a native who had wounded a soldier. He also burned a village, and having lost six men in an engagement, rushed into a village and captured 20 of the inhabitants, of which number he killed 10, placing their heads on pikepoles.
